STRONG STEADY SASKATCHEWAN

As November 11 approaches, let us take a moment to remember and honour the brave men and women who have sacrificed so much for the freedoms and peace we cherish each day.

This year, Remembrance Day feels especially close to home for Saskatchewan. This past week, Saskatchewan's own Shawn Farrell, who tragically lost his life in the Wainwright tragedy, was laid to rest in Prince Albert. His passing is a heartbreaking reminder of the sacrifices made by those who serve and the profound impact their loss has on families, communities and our province.

Please support the Poppy Campaign and wear your poppy with pride over your heart, on the left side, close to where we carry our gratitude and remembrance.

More importantly, let us teach younger generations the meaning behind the poppy and the importance of Remembrance Day. Growing up in Blaine Lake, our parents instilled in us the importance of attending and observing the November 11th ceremonies, and of taking the time to reflect on the sacrifices made by so many. It is a tradition and a sense of gratitude that we must continue to pass on to our children and grandchildren. May they understand that the freedoms we enjoy came at a tremendous cost, and that remembering those who served, those who sacrificed, and those who never returned is a responsibility we must carry forward.

We remember. We honour. We will never forget.

Lest We Forget.

ROYAL CANADIAN LEGION CELBRATES 100 YEARS OF SUPPORTING CANADA'S VETERANS

DID YOU KNOW?

2026 marks a once-in-a-lifetime milestone: a century of standing with Veterans, strengthening communities, and honouring the memory of those who served.

Founded in 1925 at the Unity Conference, the Legion began with a clear mission — to support Veterans, advocate for their rights, and ensure the act of Remembrance continues. On July 17, 1926, the Legion was officially incorporated by a special Act of Parliament, now recognized as their anniversary.

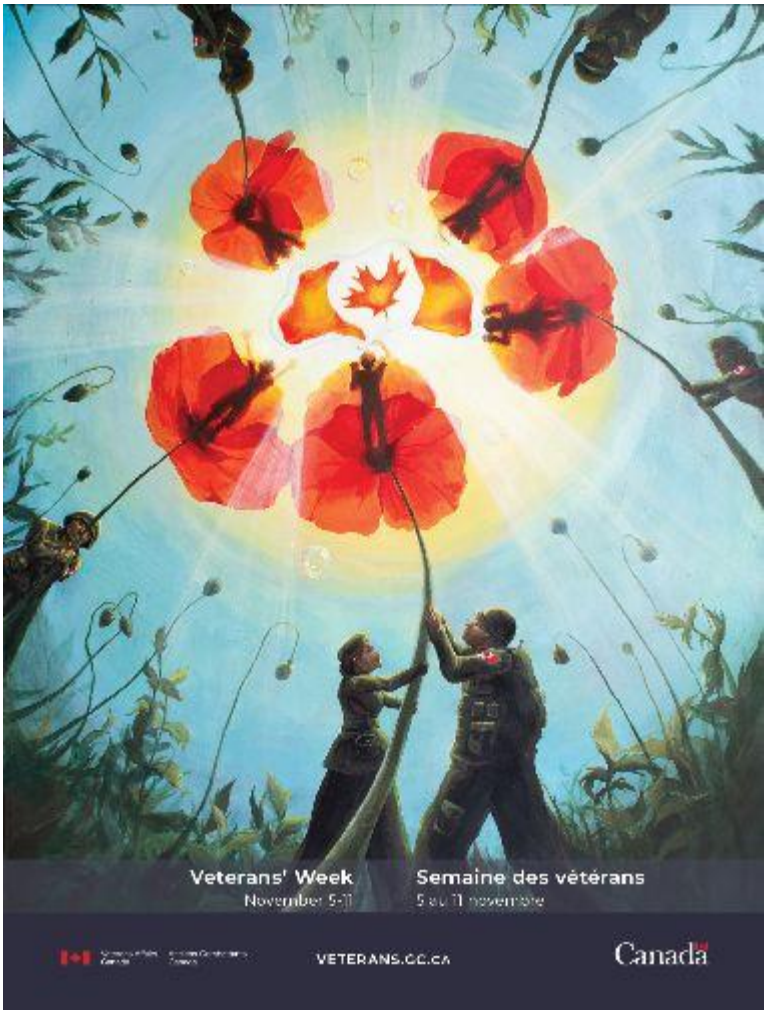

The act of Remembrance is one of the most important ways to honour and thank Veterans for their sacrifices.

The Royal Canadian Legion is committed to ensuring Canadians never forget. They remember Canadian Veterans from all conflicts, as well as those who have made sacrifices on the home-front. Our mission is to ensure Canada never forgets the sacrifices of our Canadian Armed Forces, RCMP, Peace Officers, Merchant Navy, and Reserves. We also remember our military families— the mothers, fathers, sons and daughters of Canadian Veterans.

Special thanks to our Royal Canadian Legion Branches in Saskatoon and across our province for everything they do.

2026 VETERANS' WEEK NOVEMBER 5 TO 11

Veterans' Week is marked each year in the lead-up to Remembrance Day on November 11. It is a chance for all Canadians to recognize our Veterans and remember those who died to protect our freedom.

The Royal Canadian Legion plays a leading role in helping Canadians keep remembrance alive in our communities. Each year, its National Youth Remembrance Contests, delivered in partnership with The Legion National Foundation, encourage young Canadians to remember through art, writing and videos.

This year's Veterans' Week poster features artwork created by Chaelyn Han of Vancouver, British Columbia. Chaelyn used bright colours and stylized figures to show how the service and sacrifice of Canada's Veterans supports the safe and free Canada we enjoy today.

This Veterans' Week, how will you honour those who have served and sacrificed in uniform?
