PREMIER WALL RECOGNIZES MR. DRAKE IN THE LEGISLATURE TODAY AND HONOURS HIM FOR DESIGNING OUR SASKATCHEWAN FLAG!

Back in 1968, Anthony Drake, who was teaching in Hodgeville at the time, had entered the competition put on by the Saskatchewan government to choose our provincial flag.

He submitted 13 different designs, and out of 4,000 submissions that came in to Regina, the winning design, and our current provincial flag, was one submitted by Mr. Drake.

Mr. Drake and his family had made plans to return to his native homeland of England, and so he had to miss the formal raising of the new ...flag.

Today, we had the honour to welcome back Mr. Drake to Saskatchewan, where he not only got to see the flag fly in person at the Legislature, but will also get to go home with a flag that has flown atop it.

He will be spending a few weeks touring southern Saskatchewan. Thanks to the Home of the Sk. Flag Foundation Inc. for also welcoming Mr. Drake and showing him around our great province.
